BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Ashleigh Netter's journey from Hurricane Katrina survivor to powerhouse keynote speaker, workshop facilitator, and impact coach is both inspiring and remarkable. Her passion for being a catalyst for change in leadership and community development is evident in her work and advocacy efforts. As an executive leader in pharmacy and health equity advocacy, Dr. Netter has demonstrated a remarkable ability to merge profitability with a commitment to community impact and diversity inclusion. Dr. Netter brings a wealth of knowledge with her services in business management and education consultation.

Her strategic approach has not only set new standards for team excellence and business leadership but has also paved the way for successful partnerships with prominent organizations and policymakers. One of Dr. Netter's most significant contributions lies in her dedication to creating equitable access to care and addressing social determinants of health (SDOH) disparities. By leveraging her influence and expertise, she has been instrumental in advocating for marginalized and underserved communities at local, state, and federal levels.

Driven by her personal experiences and commitment to social responsibility, Dr. Netter continues to inspire hope and empower individuals to embrace opportunities for growth and self-mastery. Her unwavering dedication to transforming lives and fostering inclusive environments underscores her role as a change agent and leader in her field. Dr. Ashleigh Netter's story serves as a testament to the power of resilience, advocacy, and leadership in creating positive change and driving impactful outcomes in both professional and community settings.
